

How to Get an Agreed Divorce in Tennessee

If you have NO children who are under 18, disabled or in high school and you do NOT own buildings or land or a business with your spouse, or have retirement benefits.

This packet has the court forms you will need to get an agreed divorce. It also explains:

- What an agreed divorce is.
- Who can get an agreed divorce.
- Steps to get an agreed divorce.
- How to get ready for your court hearing.
- Answers to common questions about divorce.
- What goes in a Divorce Agreement.

What is an agreed divorce?

Agreed means that you and your spouse agree on all points of your divorce AND you must meet all the rules below. An agreed divorce is easier and faster. It costs less than a regular divorce because:

- There are fewer court papers to fill out.
- You don't have to have a lawyer. But it's best to talk to a lawyer before starting any divorce.

Can anyone get an agreed divorce with this packet?

No! It is only for couples if ALL of these are true:

- One or both of you lived in Tennessee for at least the past 6 months OR you both lived in Tennessee when you decided to divorce;
- You and your spouse have no children together who are under 18, in high school, or are disabled.

Children together means children you had together that were born before your marriage AND any born or adopted during your marriage.

- Neither spouse is pregnant;
- You both want to end your marriage;
- You don't own buildings or land or a business together or have retirement benefits; AND
- You can agree on alimony and how to divide your property, and will both sign a Divorce Agreement (Form 5).

If any of these are not true for you, you can't use this packet! Talk to a lawyer.

Do I need a lawyer?

It is always good to talk to a lawyer if possible. You need a lawyer if:

- You find the court papers hard to understand;
- You or your spouse has an IRS qualified pension or retirement plan;
- You or your spouse own buildings or land (this is called real property);
- You or your spouse own a business;
- Your spouse won't sign the Divorce Agreement;
- Your spouse has a lawyer;
- You have questions about your divorce. The court can't give you legal advice;
- You don't know how to locate your spouse;
- Your spouse over controls you or makes you afraid to disagree; OR
- There is domestic violence. (See page 2 of these instructions for free legal help.)

Important! Only want a lawyer for part of the case? It is always best to talk to a lawyer, if possible. Having a lawyer look at your Divorce Agreement can help you.

Where can I find a lawyer?

- Your county's Bar Association. This is a group that lawyers join. They may have programs that can give you free advice. Or they can refer you to a lawyer.
- Look under "lawyer" in the yellow pages.
- Search for "lawyer" on the internet.
- Ask divorced friends which lawyer they used.
- Check the Administrative Office of the Court's website at: www.tncourts.gov and the Court's Access to Justice website, www.justiceforalltn.com.

Where can I get legal help and information?

Mediation Can Help You and Your Spouse Agree.

You cannot use these forms or this packet if you and your spouse can't agree on everything in the Divorce Agreement. However, a mediator is someone who helps people agree. The mediator meets with you and your spouse to try to help you and your spouse find an agreement that is ok for both of you. Many Court Clerks have lists of mediators that you may contact.

Note: Are you a victim of domestic violence? Then you don't have to meet the mediator with your spouse. You and your spouse can have separate meetings. Sometimes a judge can waive mediation.

What if the mediator can't help us agree?

Then you can't use this packet. Talk to a lawyer about filing a regular divorce.

Before you fill out the forms, you need to know that it is against the law to commit perjury. Perjury is when you lie to the court on purpose.

Always tell the truth when you fill out the forms and when you are in court.

Steps to Get an Agreed Divorce

Tip! Make extra copies of the blank forms in this packet. This is in case you make a mistake. Also, make copies of all papers you give the Court Clerk. Ask the Clerk to date-stamp your copy. Keep all your date-stamped divorce papers in a folder or envelope. Bring it with you when you go to court.

The top of all the forms looks the same. There is a big box with 3 rows. There is an example of this box on page 3 of these instructions. The information in this box is important.

The first box in Row 1 shows that you are filing for divorce in Tennessee.

The second box in Row 1 shows the type of court where you will file for divorce. Fill out the type of court where you will file for divorce. If you don't know which court, leave this box empty. Ask the court clerk which court will hear your divorce. Then write that court in this blank. See page 5 of these instructions for more information.

The third box in Row 1 shows the name of the county where you will file for divorce. Page 5 of these instructions has information on what county you can file in. Write the name of the county where you will file for divorce in this box.

The first box in Row 2 tells the name of the form and the form number.

The second box in Row 2 has a blank for a file number and division.

Important! The court clerk will tell you the file number when you file the paperwork. Do not write in a file number until you get this information from the court clerk.

Important! Some large counties have different court divisions. Check with the court clerk to see if the court has divisions in your county. Do not fill in the division blank unless the court tells you that there is a division.

Row 3 is where you list your name and your spouse's name.

The spouse who is filing the divorce is the Plaintiff. The other spouse is the Defendant.

The information you fill out in the big box must be the same on each form.

State of Tennessee	Court _____	County _____
Form Name and Number		File No. _____ (Must Be Completed) Division _____ (Large Counties Only)
Plaintiff _____ (Name: First, Middle, Last of spouse filing the divorce)
Defendant _____ (Name: First, Middle, Last of the other spouse)

Step 1 You and your spouse MUST fill out these papers. The Court Clerk can't do this for you. When they are filled out, go to the Court Clerk's office and give them (file) these papers:

- Request for Divorce, Form 1. Must be signed and notarized.
- Spouses' Personal Information, Form 2
Fill it out and put it in a letter-size envelope. On the outside, write both spouses' names and your case number. The Court Clerk will give you your case number.
- Check with your Court Clerk to see if you need to fill out a Civil Case Cover Sheet or a summons.

Step 2 If you can't afford to pay the filing fee, also fill out and give the Court Clerk (file):

- If you need it Request to Postpone Filing Fees and Order, Form 3
The court may let you pay the filing fees at the end of your case. You and your spouse must decide how you will split the cost of the filing fees

Step 3 Complete the Health Insurance Notice for Divorcing Spouses (Form 4):

- Health Insurance Notice, Form 4
Fill it out, file with Clerk and mail a copy to your spouse by certified mail. Keep a copy for your records. Not on each other's health insurance or don't have health insurance? Then write that on the paper.

Step 4 Fill out these papers and give them to the Court Clerk (file):

- Divorce Agreement, Form 5. Must be signed and notarized by both you and your spouse.
- Final Decree of Divorce, Form 6. Must be signed by both you and your spouse.
- Court Order for Divorcing Spouses, Form 7. Must be signed by both you and your spouse. Both spouses must obey this order!
- Divorce Certificate
Ask the Clerk for this paper. Don't use a copy. Fill out as much of it as you can. Ask the Clerk about the deadline for this paper.
- Notice of Hearing to Approve Irreconcilable Differences Divorce, Form 8

Step 5 Wait at least 60 days after filing your Request for Divorce (Form 1) then:

- Call the Clerk. Has it been more than 180 days since the last person signed the Divorce Agreement? Then you must fill out a new Divorce Agreement.
- Ask the court clerk how to get a court date for the Final Divorce Hearing. Ask if you need any other papers to set the hearing date.
- If needed, complete and file the Notice of Hearing to Approve Irreconcilable Differences Divorce, Form 8, with the Court Clerk. You must mail your spouse a copy.

Step 6 Go to the Courthouse on the date of your Final Divorce Hearing.

- It's best if both spouses go, but if you are the spouse who filed the divorce, you must go to the hearing. It's best if both spouses go to the hearing. Even though you and your spouse agree on the divorce, the judge still must approve the forms. The judge may have questions on the forms. It's in your best interest to be in court so you can answer the judge's questions. Some counties require that both spouses go to the hearing. Check with the Court Clerk.
- What if only one spouse goes and the judge changes something? You will have to go back to court later. Bring copies of all the date-stamped divorce papers with you. Bring a copy of the Final Decree of Divorce, Form 6.

Step 7 After the hearing, go to the Court Clerk's office. Ask how to get the signed copy of the Final Divorce Order. You may have to pay for copies. You will have to pay for certified copies.

- If you asked that your name be changed in the divorce papers, get a certified copy of the Final Divorce Order.
- If your spouse did not go to the hearing, you must mail him/her a copy of this Order.

Get ready for your Court Hearing

Before the hearing:

- Dress neatly. Wear clothes that look like a businessperson. Wear clothes that show respect for the court. This means:
 - ⊙ No shorts.
 - ⊙ No tank tops or low cut tops.
 - ⊙ No crop tops that show your belly.
 - ⊙ No T-shirts with words or pictures.
 - ⊙ Turn off your cell phone or pager.
- Take all of your court papers.
- It's best if both spouses go to the hearing. Some counties require both spouses to go. Check with the Court Clerk. You don't need witnesses.
- Get to court early on the day of your hearing. You may need to find parking and go through security.
- Go to the Clerk's Office to make sure your case is on the calendar.
- Sit down in the courtroom. Wait for your name to be called. (There may be other cases ahead of you.)

At the hearing:

- Step forward when your name is called.
- You will be asked to raise your right hand and take an oath to tell the truth.
- After you swear to tell the truth, say this:

"My name is _____.
I am the Plaintiff in this case. I am here to get a Final Divorce Order."

- Don't sit down until your case is over.
- When you speak to the judge, say, "Your Honor." Be polite.
- The judge will look at your court papers and may ask questions. Listen carefully. Never butt in. Don't talk until the judge asks you a question. Answer all questions fully and tell the truth. What if you don't understand a question? Then ask the judge to explain or repeat it.

The judge may ask you:

- Your name and your spouse's name.
- How long you have lived in Tennessee.
- If either spouse wants their old name back.
- If a spouse is pregnant.
- If your Divorce Agreement divides the property fairly.
- If you want the court to grant the divorce.
- If you and your spouse have irreconcilable differences (cannot get along).

You may answer, like this:

- ☞ I have lived in Tennessee for at least 6 months.
- ☞ We are not expecting a child now.
- ☞ My spouse and I have no children together.
- ☞ My spouse and I have made a Divorce Agreement that is fair. We have divided all property and debt.
- ☞ I want a divorce.
- ☞ My spouse and I can't get along any more. We have no hope of working our marriage out.

What if there are mistakes on the divorce papers? The judge may ask both spouses to make the changes and initial them. If both spouses aren't there, you will have to come back another day to correct them.

At the hearing:

Once approved, the judge will sign the Final Divorce Order. Your divorce is not final until the judge signs the Final Divorce Order and it is filed with the Clerk.

Helpful Tip! After the court makes the Final Divorce Order, each spouse has 30 days to appeal. During this 30-day period, you shouldn't get married again or buy any property.

After the hearing, ask the Court Clerk for certified copies of the Final Divorce Order and Divorce Agreement. You may need this later.

Common Questions About Agreed Divorce

To get an agreed divorce, do I have to prove that my spouse did something wrong?

No. You just have to say that you and your spouse can no longer get along and that you have no hope of working out your marriage problems. The court calls this "irreconcilable differences".

Do I have to live in Tennessee to file for divorce here?

One or both spouses must have lived in Tennessee for at least the last 6 months OR you lived in Tennessee when you decided to divorce.

Where do I file my divorce papers?

- In the county where your spouse lives now.
- OR in the county where you and your spouse lived when you all separated.

What if your spouse is in jail or doesn't live in Tennessee? Then file in the county where you live.

The court in each county is different. The divorce court in your county could be a Circuit, Chancery, or General Sessions Court. Ask the Court Clerk if their court hears divorce cases. DON'T file them in more than one court.

Will my divorce papers be public?

Yes, except for the paper called Spouses' Personal Information, Form 2. The information in that form will be kept secret. The other papers you and your spouse file at court are public record. That means anyone can look at your file. Anyone can get copies of any papers in your file.

Is there a fee to file my divorce papers?

Yes. Each county has its own fee plus state fees. Ask the Court Clerk's office how much you will have to pay. Bring cash with you. You must pay the Court Clerk when you file your Request for Divorce. Many Court Clerks don't take checks or credit cards.

What if I can't pay the filing fee up front?

If you can't afford the fee now, you can ask if you can pay it later. Fill out a Request to Postpone Filing Fees and Order, Form 3. Take it to the Court Clerk's office.

How soon can the divorce be granted?

The soonest is 60 days after you file your Request for Divorce. It usually will take longer.

Helpful Tip! After the court makes the Final Divorce Order, each spouse has 30 days to appeal. During this 30-day period, you shouldn't get married again or buy any property.

Important! Until the divorce is final, you and your spouse can't do some things. You and your spouse can't:

- Disobey the Court Order for Divorcing Spouses (Form 7) OR
- Spend, give away, destroy, waste or use up property from the marriage OR
- Harass each other OR
- Stop or change insurance policies OR
- Hide, change, or destroy electronic evidence kept on a computer or memory storage device.

What if I am a victim of domestic violence?

Did your spouse hurt or threaten you? To get an agreed divorce you must talk to your spouse. What if it is not safe to contact your spouse? Then an agreed divorce may not work for you. These free resources can help you. They can also help if your spouse doesn't want the divorce.

What is a Divorce Agreement?

The Divorce Agreement is one of the papers you must file to get an agreed divorce. It tells the court what you and your spouse agreed about alimony. It says how you will divide your money, personal property and debts. You can't use these forms if you or your spouse own buildings or land (real property).

Doesn't the court divide our property?

In an agreed divorce, the spouses decide these things together but the court has to approve. The court wants to see that you divide your property and debts fairly. You have to list how all the property is divided, even if you think the property belongs only to one of you. The property division does not have to be equal. The court may change things if the agreement is not fair. The court may change things if one spouse will not have enough to live on.

Do you and your spouse agree about how to divide the property fairly? Then most of the time the court will OK your agreement.

Important! The court will not OK your agreement if it is unfair.

Important! If a debt is in both spouses' names, creditors may try to collect after the divorce from either spouse even if the Divorce Agreement says that one spouse or another will pay for it. If you or your spouse have a mortgage together, you cannot use these forms.

Important! If either spouse is thinking of filing bankruptcy, talk to a lawyer. It may cause problems for the other spouse.

What if my spouse will not sign the Divorce Agreement?

Then you can't get an agreed divorce. Don't use this packet.

You can still file a petition for divorce but you can't use these forms or this packet!

Will the court decide on alimony?

Alimony is money that one spouse pays the other for support. In an agreed divorce, the spouses decide whether there should be alimony, how much it should be and for how long it should be paid. This goes in your Divorce Agreement. The Court has to approve it.

For example, some spouses decide that alimony will be paid until:

- The supported spouse remarries or lives with another person, or
- The supported spouse finishes school, or
- One of the spouses dies.

Alimony may make a significant difference in your taxes. Talk to a tax expert before you sign the Divorce Agreement.

The judge will review the proposed alimony to make sure it is fair.

What if we can't agree on alimony?

Then you can't get an agreed divorce. Don't use this packet. Is alimony important? Or is there a big difference in salaries? Then talk to a lawyer. You and your spouse may:

- Talk to a mediator, who may be able to help you agree, or
- Talk to a lawyer, or
- File a regular divorce.

How do we divide retirement funds?

If either spouse has retirement funds, then you need to talk to a lawyer. You can't use these forms or this packet.

Should I talk to a lawyer about the Divorce Agreement?

Yes! Talk to a lawyer about your property, debt, and alimony. Some lawyers will help with just the Divorce Agreement. You do the rest of the case on your own.

Debt

Notice: The Final Decree does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party or a party's property, even though the party is not responsible under the terms of the decree for an account, any debt associated with an account or any debt. It may be in a party's best interest to cancel, close or freeze any jointly held accounts. T.C.A. §36-4-134.

What this means: This Order does not protect you against creditors. They may try to collect from you, even if your spouse is supposed to pay the debt. It may be best to cancel, close, or freeze any accounts you have together.

Plaintiff will pay all debts he or she has made since separating from the other spouse. He or she will also pay for the following debts:

List all loans, including car notes, credit card, cash advance debts	Name of Creditor (person or company you owe)	Account Number (last four digits)	Name on the account	Amount still owed
1.				$
2.				$
3.				$
4.				$

If you need more lines, copy this page. Make sure it is included when you file this paper.

Are any of these debts listed above joint debts? It is a joint debt if both spouses signed a Note or legal paper to pay the debt.

The Plaintiff will do his or her best to refinance or pay off these joint debts.

The Plaintiff has (choose one): 90 days 180 days 1 year from the date the Court approves this Agreement to do so or otherwise take the other spouse's name off of these joint debts.

What if the Plaintiff does not refinance or pay off the joint debts in that time?

Then the other spouse may take him or her back to Court.

The Court may order the Plaintiff's assets sold to pay off the joint debt(s).

We Both Agree on How to Divide the Debts

(Hold Harmless Provision)

Both the spouses agree to divide their debts as listed above. The Plaintiff agrees to pay all the debts listed under "Plaintiff's Debts." The Defendant agrees to pay all the debts listed under " Defendant's Debts." The Plaintiff will not try to make the Defendant pay his/her debts. The Defendant will not try to make the Plaintiff pay his/her debts.

The Plaintiff and Defendant understand that creditors can try to collect from both of them. A creditor may get one spouse to pay the other spouse's debt, even after the divorce is final. If that happens, the spouse who has agreed to pay the debt will pay the other spouse back. He or she will pay back any payments and reasonable lawyer's fees the spouse paid. He or she will pay back any costs of trying to stop a creditor from collecting the debt.

Alimony (check one):

Warning! This section can be very hard. Please talk with a lawyer if you need help with this section.

Alimony can only be changed if there are significant life changes. Sometimes it cannot be changed at all. You have to get a court order to change alimony.

If you want alimony but do not agree on all the sections below, you cannot use this form.

You must fill out each section.

Neither spouse wants alimony

OR

1. The Plaintiff Defendant agrees to pay (amount) $: _____.

2. We agree that the alimony (check all the boxes that are true for your agreement):

Will be paid until this date _____

Will end when the one who gets the alimony dies or gets married again.

Will end when the one who gets the alimony finishes school, or on _____, whichever date comes first.

Or if this happens _____

Will not be modified.

The court can modify the alimony due to significant changes in our lives, or if the person receiving alimony lives with another person, with or without a romantic relationship.

3. We agree that the alimony will be paid (you must check one):

Weekly

Monthly

Other: _____

Lump sum paid all at one time.

Important! Both of us understand alimony may change our federal taxes. Unless we specifically agree otherwise, the payor will be able to deduct it on his/her tax return and the person receiving it will have to declare it as income. Our initials at the bottom of this page show we understand this. We agree we are responsible for knowing, understanding and accepting this.

Name Change

Check below to change a spouse's name back to the name used before this marriage (maiden name or previous married name). A government agency or other business may need proof of this name change. If so, give them a filed copy of this form.

Waiver of Service

By signing this Agreement, the Plaintiff and Defendant agree they do not have to serve each other with divorce papers. This form is only good for 180 days after the last spouse signs it. Your final hearing must be within those 180 days. If the 180 days has passed, you will have to fill out, sign, and file this form again. The spouses understand that they do not have to file an Answer to a Complaint for Divorce.

Entire Agreement

This document says everything the Plaintiff and Defendant agreed to in this divorce. If they agreed with each other about anything else, the court cannot make them do it.

Warning - Changes Modification

This form is a legal contract. It is very important this contract is completely filled out. Make sure that you are OK with everything that is in it before you sign it. Speak to a lawyer before signing or if you have any questions.
